Brame-O'Brien

Saturday evening a beautiful and impressive wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. O.Brien, of Appomattox, when their lovely daughter, Frances McFarland, became the bride of John Ellis Brame, Jr., of Chase City, Rev. D. G. Trent, of the Methodist Church was the officiating minister. The home was decorated in trailing cedar and softly shaded candles. The bride was given in marriage by her father and her sister, Miss Elizabeth O'Brien, was maid of honor. The groom's best man was John Wesley Osborne, Jr., of Union Level. Little John Randolph Cook, of Norfolk, and John Wesley Osborne, Jr., of Union Level, were the ribbon holders. Preceeding the ceremony Miss Avis Brown sang "At Dawning" and during the ceremony John Curtis Caldwell sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. B. Caldwell. The bride was attired in a wedding gown of white satin trimmed with silver lace and pearls. Her going-away ensemble was of cinnamon brown crepe. After the reception which immediately followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Brame left for Washington, Baltimore and North Carolina points. They will make their future home at Chase City.

Among those present from out of town to attend the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Lincham, of Durham, N. C.; and John Wesley Osborne of Union Level, Mr. J. R. Townsend and Miss Martha Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ellis Brame, Sr., of Chase City, Mr. Otway C. O.Brien, Miss Mamie T. Gills, and Thelbert Trent, of Lynchburg and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bush and John Randolph Cook of Norfolk.

Americans Balk at Paris High Prices

Paris.—Americans are loafing something of their reputation as the star spenders, the "easy marks," in France.

Visitors from the country where the French seem to think every one is a millionaire are reported to be looking twice at the price of things—and not always buying.

The highest priced motion picture scene on the boulevards complains that Americans distinguish themselves at the box office by looking over the price sign—20 francs or 80 cents—and frequently fading away.

Several newspapers of late, commenting on slack business in certain zones, mention that Americans find prices high." They regret that these tourists will go home to spread word that Paris is expensive, even for them. Few recognize that, as the franc is virtually stabilized at 4 cents, world prices prevail here, and many things made in small, relatively inefficient factories here cost much more than similar products, made by machine and in great quantities, in America.

Champagne at 200 francs, or $8, a bottle in the Montmartre cabarets is quite a shock to tourists. Large parties of slummers now find courage to make one bottle enough for their visit to the night-life stage setting.

American women, also, rather staggered at $120 or $200 for a Paris gown —plus the duty that may have to be paid—often don't buy, or buy fewer costumes and pick up exact copies of Paris models in New York on their way back, at far less cost.

Slurs "R," Guests Laugh; Speaker Has Fit; Dies

Pola, Italy.—Blurring of the letter R in speaking, a harmless and sometimes even laudable vocal action, caused the death here of Benio Marcovich, twenty-one. It happened at a family dinner to celebrate the engagement of Carlo Roncich. After the toast to the fiancee, Marcovich, cousin of the fiance, arose to give a toast to the prospective bridegroom. When he reached his first R the guests laughed so loudly and so suddenly that Marcovich fell to the floor in a nervous fit. His head struck a table corner and he died on the way to a hospital.

Raising Monkeys for Medical Uses Pays

Menton, France. — Raising monkeys for the medical market is now an established business on the French and Italian Rivieras. In addition to Dr. Serge Voronoff's model monkey farm near his chateau at Menton-Caravan, there are four other establishments breeding the special kind of African ape most highly valued by the medical profession.

An experimental farm was first opened at San Remo, Italy and now there are monkey farms at Nice, Saint Raphael and Cross de Cagnes.

A full-grown animal sells from 3,000 to 5,000 francs and represents a good profit.

THE GROWING FAME OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 3:7-12; 6:53-56.

GOLDEN TEXT—The common people heard him gladly.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Followed by Crowds of People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Growing Fame of Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why the People Followed Jesus.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Secret of Jesus' Fame.

I. Jesus Ministering by the Sea (3:7-12).

1. Why He withdrew. It was because of the murderous plotting of the Pharisees against His life. So violent was their hatred against Him that they conspired with the Herodians, whom they regarded as traitors to their nation and country, to put Him to death. Their opposition was aroused when Jesus claimed to have power on earth to forgive sins (2:10). It grew in intensity when He mingled with publicans and sinners (2:16), and was fanned into a violent flame when He set at nought their false interpretations of the Sabbath law (2:23-28). Criticism and harshness causes Jesus today to withdraw from our presence.

2. To whom He ministered (vv. 7,8.)

A great multitude, representing a wide stretch of territory. They came from Jerusalem and Idumea on the south, from beyond Jordan on the east, and from Tyre and Sidon on the northwest. Jesus was the magnetic attraction—the hero of the hour. The interest of the whole country centered in Him.

3. The result (vv. 9-12).

(1) So great was the pressure that lives seemed endangered by the thronging of the multitudes. Some came out of curiosity "when they heard what great things he did" (v. 8). Others came for physical benefit, to be healed of their diseases. To escape from the throng He ordered the disciples to secure a little boat for Him.

(2) The unclean spirits prostrated themselves before Him (vv. 11, 12). They confessed Him as the Son of God. They had no doubt about His deity. This testimony He refused to receive because (a) the time for His declaration was not yet ripe. (b) They were not the beings to make Him known. He would not receive tribute from such a source. He would be proclaimed only by those who loved and honored Him.

II. Jesus Ministering at Gennesaret (6:53-56).

1. Jesus recognized (v. 54). The people quickly recognized Him because they had witnessed His mighty works. The feeding of the 5,000 was doubtless still in their minds. Perhaps many of them had witnessed His works in Capernaum and nearby places. They had doubtless heard His teach also. He was recognized wherever He went. When He rules in the lives of believers today, those who come into touch with them recognize the fact. They take knowledge of them that they have been with Jesus (Acts 4:13).

2. The people ran to see Jesus (v. 55). They did not go about this in a half-hearted way. Those who really come into touch with the Lord Jesus Christ have called forth from them unusual energy. The degree of reality of our contact with Him is expressed by our enthusiasm.

3. They searched the whole region for those in need (v. 55).

Those who were found to be sick and in need were carried in beds to Jesus. Those who have come to know Christ will go about earnestly seeking for the lost to bring them to Christ. It matters not what effort is required.

4. They were made whole by His touch (v. 56). The only touch which is needed for the healing of the human soul is that of faith. When the individual is brought into touch with Him by a vital and living faith, sin is vanquished and sickness and death lose their power.

The deceased had been a sufferer for many years, but was only confined to the bed a few weeks before her death. Her suffering was very great during her last illness and all was done for her that loving hands could do, but God in His infinite wisdom took her to rest about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. Had she lived until the 25th she would have been 80 years old. She has been a member of Red Oak Baptist Church since girlhood.

In the presence of a large crowd of friends and relatives her remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground by the side of her husband, who preceded her to the grave about 23 years ago. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. L. Caudle. This is the third burial which has taken place here within three weeks.

She is survived by two sisters, Miss Bettie Gordon and Mrs. S. T. Marsh, both of this county. She was loved by all who knew her and it was hard to give her up, but the Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away, Blessed be the name of the Lord.—X.

Governor's Wife Finds Mansion Not Like Home

Jackson, Miss.—Living in a governor's mansion "is mighty nice and all that," but to Mrs. Dennis Murphree, Mississippi's first lady, it is like a long visit.

"Nothing belongs to you," she explains, "and the mansion does not have home atmosphere."

So Mrs. Murphree is happy that she will return to my own home and chickens" in January when Governor Murphree's term expires.

"I'll have my own chickens, small truck garden and, best of all, my own home to arrange and run as I please," she says. "Then, too, the governor will be able to hunt and fish as much as he likes."

The Murphree home is on the out skirts of Jackson, only a few miles from the capitol. The four principal reasons Mrs. Murphree is so interested in her own home are Mary Frances, Lois, Emma Jane and Thomas Martin, her four children.

Letter Taken From Bottom of Sea Is Delivered

Oakland, Calif.—A letter that had lain at the bottom of the Mediterranean sea for more than ten years is back in the possession of its writer, Ronald Wilkins, here. Mr. Wilkins wrote the letter to his mother, Mrs. A. Wilkins of London, while he was in a hospital recovering from a wound received at Salorika. The transport which carried the letter was torpedoed and sunk. A few months ago the ship was raised and the decipherable mail delivered. When Mrs. Wilkins received the letter she forwarded it to her son here.
